Date: Tuesday, January 19, 2021: Where's Your Oxygen Mask? You Can't Be Good If You're Not Well (No Cost)

Time: 6:30-8:00 PM

Seating Capacity: 100

As frontline staff providing services to families and children, we are regularly exposed to intense situations that can usually have deep and long lasting effects on our well-being. Compassion Fatigue, and its parallel experiences, are real situations that cannot be denied or ignored. This workshop will explain Compassion Fatigue and give easy to use strategies and resources to overcome those symptoms.

Location: Virtual Training

Presenter/Contact Person: Lisa Math

Date: Tuesday, January 19, 2021: Infant & Toddler Learning Environments ($10 per person)
